

Arakur Ushuaia Resort & Spa

The perfect balance between calmness and adventure

Located in a privileged environment, on a natural balcony inside Cerro Alarkén Nature Reserve, Arakur Ushuaia is much more than a luxury hotel –it is an experience that will be etched in the memory of its visitors.

At the Southern edge of South America, located in the mythical Tierra del Fuego and washed by the waters of the Beagle Channel, stands the city of Ushuaia. A destination to visit, enjoy, and explore.

Nestled in a natural balcony at 250 m asl (820 ft. asl), Arakur Ushuaia Resort & Spa dazzles the spectator with its panoramic views. It is surrounded by ancient woodlands, natural terraces and green areas harmoniously blended into the surrounding landscape.

Arakur Ushuaia is located in the heart of Cerro Alarkén nature reserve, in a privileged setting surrounded by breathtaking landscapes. The natural viewpoint at the top of Mount Alarkén provides panoramic views of the Ushuaia Bay area, the Martial and Vinciguerra mountain ranges, the Vinciguerra glacier, the Andorra and Río Chico valleys, Mount Cortés, Mount Olivia, Mount Cinco Hermanos and Beagle Channel.

Designed for the guests to safely enjoy its facilities and natural setting, and protecting the environment. Modern, innovative. Built with high quality and natural materials. Sustainable architecture: minimum water and energy consumption, maximum comfort and functionality.

The magnificent Lobby 1.200 m² (12,900 sq. ft.) welcomes the guests with its large windows, the warmth of their fireplaces, and a sophisticated decor made with materials such as wood, stone and natural woven fabrics.
